Join passionate mental health advocates and leaders from all over the U.S. and beyond

About the Mental Health America Conference

Each year, thousands of mental health advocates unite in Washington, D.C., and online for an inspiring week of empowerment and innovation. From peers to providers, government officials to media, this dynamic group ignites a collective spark, sharing invaluable knowledge and fostering the next wave of advocacy for mental health.

Past speakers have included recognized advocates in the mental health field, including musicians Michelle Williams and Andy Grammer, author Ibram X. Kendi, Congressman Jamie Raskin, World Champion medalist swimmer Allison Schmitt, and soccer star Abby Womback.

About Mental Health America

Founded in 1909, Mental Health America is the nation’s leading community-based nonprofit dedicated to addressing and promoting mental health as a critical part of overall wellness, including prevention services, early identification, and intervention for all people living in the U.S.
