

RESOURCE LIST

Below, you'll find a list of resources, including hotlines, partner organizations, and expert information from Mental Health America to help you or a loved one as you work on your mental well-being.

Crisis and Immediate Support Resources

988 Suicide & Crisis Lifeline: The Lifeline provides 24/7, free, and confidential support to people in distress – you don't need to be suicidal to reach out. Call 1-800-273-8255 to be connected with a crisis counselor. Crisis counselors who speak Spanish are available at 1-888-628-9454.

988 Textline: When you text 988, you will complete a short survey letting the crisis counselor know a little about your situation. You will be connected with a trained crisis counselor in a crisis center who will answer the text, provide support, and share resources if needed.

Crisis Text Line: If you prefer texting to talking on the phone, text HELLO to 741-741 to be connected with a crisis counselor who will help you get through your big emotions.

2-1-1: If you need assistance finding food, paying housing bills, accessing free childcare, or other essential services, visit 211.org or dial 211 to speak to someone who can help. Run by the United Way.

BlackLine: BlackLine provides a space for peer support, counseling, witnessing, and affirming the lived experiences of those who are most impacted by systematic oppression with an LGBTQ+ Black femme lens. Call 1-800-604-5841.

Caregiver Help Desk: Contact Caregiver Action Network's Care Support Team by dialing 855-227-3640. Staffed by caregiving experts, the Help Desk helps you find the right information you need to help you navigate your complex caregiving challenges. Caregiving experts are available 8 a.m. – 7 p.m. ET.

Childhelp National Child Abuse Hotline: If you or a child you know is being hurt or doesn't feel safe at home, you can call or text 1-800-4-ACHILD (1-800-422-4453) or start an online chat at childhelp.org to reach a crisis counselor. They can help you figure out next steps to work through what is happening and stay safe.

Disaster Distress Helpline: A crisis line to support individuals when natural or man-made traumatic events occur, such as floods, earthquakes, and terrorist acts. The Helpline will provide information, support, and counseling. Call 1-800-985-5990.

Domestic Violence Hotline: If you're experiencing domestic violence, looking for resources or information, or are questioning unhealthy aspects of your relationship, call 1-800-799-7233 or go to thehotline.org to virtually chat with an advocate.

Naseeha: Naseeha is a Mental Health Helpline that answers calls from around the world from Muslims and non-Muslims. Call 1-866-627-3342 for 24/7 help.

Physician Support Line: The Physician Support Line is available at 1-888-409-0141 every day from 8 a.m. – 1:00 a.m. ET. Physician Support Line is a national, free, and confidential support line service made up of 600+ volunteer psychiatrists to provide peer support for other physicians and American medical students.

Project LETS: Project LETS offers a Trans Lifeline to provide support to individuals in crisis or approaching a crisis without police involvement to prevent ongoing systemic disparities for trans populations. Phone: 877-565-8860.

StrongHearts Native Helpline: Call 1-844-762-8483. The StrongHearts Native Helpline is a confidential and anonymous culturally appropriate domestic violence and dating violence helpline for Native Americans, available every day from 7 a.m. – 10 p.m. CT.

Teen Line: The Teen Line provides support, resources, and hope to young people through a hotline of professionally trained teen counselors, and outreach programs that destigmatize and normalize mental health. Call 800-852-8336 nationwide (6 p.m. – 10 p.m. PST) or text TEEN to 839863 (6 p.m. – 10 p.m. PST).

The Trevor Project: The Trevor Project is the leading national organization providing crisis intervention and suicide prevention services to lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, queer and questioning youth. Trained counselors are available 24/7 to youth in crisis, feeling suicidal, or in need of a safe judgment-free person to talk to. Call 1-866- 488-7386, text START to 678-678, or start an online chat at thetrevorproject.org/get-help.

Trans Lifeline: Dial 1-877-565-8860 for US and 877-330-6366 for Canada. Trans Lifeline's Hotline is a peer support service run by trans people, for trans and questioning callers.

The Partnership for Drug-free Kids Helpline: Call 1-855-378-4373 if you are having difficulty accessing support for your family or a loved one struggling with addiction faces care or treatment challenges. The Partnership for Drug-free Kids' specialists can guide you. Support is available in English and Spanish, from 9 a.m. – midnight ET on weekdays and noon-5 p.m. ET on weekends.

Veterans Crisis Line: This line connects veterans in crisis and their families and friends with qualified, caring Department of Veterans Affairs responders through a confidential toll-free hotline, online chat, or text. Open 24/7 call, 1-800-273-8255.

Warmlines: Warmlines are staffed by trained peers who have been through their own mental health struggles and know what it's like to need someone to talk to. For more information on warmlines, visit screening.mhanational.org/content/need-talk-someone-warmlines

Your Life, Your Voice Hotline: The Boys Town National Hotline is open 24 hours a day, 365 days a year to support teens and caregivers with a variety of mental health topics such as anxiety, suicidal ideation, and relationships. The hotline is staffed by trained Boys Town counselors and is accredited by the American Association of Suicidology (AAS). Spanish-speaking counselors and translation services for more than 100 languages also are available. The speech- and hearing-impaired can contact this service at hotline@boystown.org. Call 1-800-448-3000 or text VOICE to 20121 to get started.

MHA Resources

Affiliate Network: Mental Health America affiliates provide public education, information and referral, support groups, rehabilitation services as well as socialization and housing services to those confronting mental health problems and their loved ones. Many also provide family advocate services to parents of children with serious emotional disturbances, mentorship or peer support for adults recovering from mental health conditions, and professional education to those working in the mental health field. They serve as local leaders in the support and development of consumer-run initiatives and primary prevention programs, including those in schools. To find the affiliate nearest you, search at arc.mhanational.org/find-affiliate.

MHA's Peer Bridger Program: MHA launched a program providing texting support for people with mental health and addiction needs. The program is free for those living in the United States. The text line operates from 10 a.m. to midnight 12 a.m. ET, Monday through Friday (excluding holidays).

If you're interested in trying our texting line, you can text HELLO to 571-487-7456. If you'd like, you can also share your "name" (real or made up) and what's on your mind. There's no right or wrong way to start.

MHA Screening: Online screening at mhascreening.org is one of the quickest and easiest ways to determine if you're experiencing symptoms of a mental health condition. Our screens are free, confidential, and scientifically validated.

Young Leaders Initiatives: Mental Health America's youth programs empower aspiring and established young advocates to ignite their communities and build a mentally healthy future for all. Through leadership development, policy, and research, we're cultivating the next generation of mental health leaders. Young people power all of our programs, where individuals, initiatives, and knowledge converge to transform youth mental health. We provide young leaders with the tools they need to drive change in their communities. Our programs help young people expand their reach, grow their skills, and get connected to the greater ecosystem of mental health advocacy. Learn more about MHA young leaders at mhanational.org/young-leaders.
